

How to use The City of Red Deer Web Map to Check Zoning

1. Start here
www.reddeer.ca

The screenshot shows the homepage of the City of Red Deer website. At the top left is the city logo. To the right is a navigation bar with links for 'Careers', 'Events', 'News', 'Online Tools', and 'Contact'. Below this is a search bar. A red arrow points from the 'Online Tools' link to the search bar. Below the navigation bar is a horizontal menu with links for 'About Red Deer', 'Business', 'Recreation and Culture', 'City Services', 'City Government', and 'What's Happening'. The main content area features two promotional tiles: one about avoiding construction delays and another about a roundabout. Below these is a 'Popular Tools and Topics' section with links for 'Program & Activity Guide', 'City Council Meetings', and 'Report a Problem'.

2. Click on the WebMap

The screenshot shows the 'Online Tools' page. At the top is a navigation bar with links for 'About Red Deer', 'Business', 'Recreation and Culture', 'City Services', 'City Government', 'What's Happening', and 'Report a Problem'. Below this is a search bar. The main content area is titled 'Some of our most popular online tool and services for residents.' and features six tiles: 'MyCity', 'Report a Problem', 'Register in a program', 'Interactive City Map (Web Map)', 'MyPayments', and 'Property Inquiries and Tax Certificates'. A red arrow points from the 'Interactive City Map (Web Map)' tile to the text '2. Click on the WebMap'. To the right of the tiles is a vertical list of links including 'MyCity', 'E-billing and MyCity', 'Parking Ticket Payment Online', 'Activities Search and Registration', 'Register in a Program - look n book', 'Property Inquiries and Tax Certificates', 'Interactive City Map (Web Map)', 'Open Data Catalogue', 'Red Deer Community Events', and 'Request a Copy of The City of Red Deer'.
