

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS

Alberta's success depends on ensuring that all residents of the City of Red Deer feel welcome here. Today, new Red Deerians are a vital part of our community—bringing fresh perspectives and new ideas, starting businesses, and contributing to the vibrant diversity that we all value.

WHEREAS

This week, we honour the spirit of unity that brings neighbours together across Alberta. During Welcoming Months, I invite all residents of the City of Red Deer to join this movement of communities—nationwide and worldwide—by renewing our commitment to our core values and taking action in the spirit of welcoming.

WHEREAS

By working together, we can achieve greater prosperity and make Alberta the kind of place where diverse people from around the world feel valued and want to put down roots. Regardless of where we are born or what we look like, we are Red Deerians, united in our efforts to build a stronger Alberta.

WHEREAS

By recognizing the contributions that we all make to create a vibrant culture and growing economy, we make our community more prosperous and more inclusive to all who call it home. Let us come together to build communities where every resident has the opportunity to contribute at their best. Let us come together to create more prosperous communities and to reaffirm that Alberta is a welcoming community.

NOW THEREFORE

I, Ken Johnston, do hereby proclaim the months of October and November of 2023, Welcoming Months. I call upon the people of the City of Red Deer to join together to build stronger communities across our Alberta.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Official Seal of the City of Red Deer, Alberta, to be affixed.

Mayor Ken Johnston
City of Red Deer
