

Members of Council will hold themselves accountable to their community, the organization and other members of Council for their decisions and actions.

- 1 Council as a whole is the sole position at The City of Red Deer to exercise the community representative role with respect to its citizens. This role cannot be delegated.
- 2 Council members individually are accountable to their electors; recognizing the primacy of the Council table in decision making.
- 3 Accountability to the community will be accomplished primarily through Council's creation of Purpose Statement policies and Executive Limitation policies, holding the City Manager accountable to Council for fulfillment.
- 4 Council will self-monitor, discuss and evaluate Council's processes and performance on a regular basis.
